Starting Off: Foundations of Training

The foundation of effective training lies in early socialization, establishing clear boundaries, and building trust.

Early Socialization

- Use high-value treats for new or challenging commands.
- Keep training sessions short (5-10 minutes) to maintain engagement.

Consistency and Clear Commands

Use simple, consistent commands such as "sit," "stay," "come," and "heel." Always use the same words and gestures to avoid confusion.

Socialization and Exposure

Regularly expose your dog to different environments, people, and animals to develop confidence and good manners.

Crate Training

Crate training helps with housebreaking and provides your dog with a safe space. Introduce the crate gradually, making it a positive environment.

Strategies to manage:

Chewing and Destructive Behavior

Boredom and teething are common causes of destructive chewing.
