The primary characteristic of this deed is that it promises the grantor's ownership is free of undisclosed encumbrances or claims, and that the grantor has the legal right to transfer the property.

In Oklahoma, a warranty deed offers the highest level of assurance to the buyer regarding the property's title, including:

- Covenant of Seisin: The grantor owns the estate and has the right to convey it.
- Covenant Against Encumbrances: The property is free from liens or encumbrances unless disclosed.
- Covenant of Quiet Enjoyment: The grantee's possession won't be disturbed by others claiming superior title.
