Understanding NYU's Academic Calendar Framework

Overview of NYU's Academic Year

NYU operates on an academic calendar that is divided primarily into two main semesters: fall and spring. Additionally, many programs offer summer sessions, winter breaks, and optional intersession courses. The spring semester is a critical period that typically begins in January and concludes in May, culminating in final exams, project submissions, and commencement ceremonies.

The university's academic calendar is designed to accommodate the diverse needs of its undergraduate, graduate, professional, and international students. As such, the exact dates can vary slightly each year but generally follow a consistent pattern.

- May 8th or 12th of the respective year.

This date signifies the final day of scheduled classes, after which final examinations take place.
